Sales & Deals Playbook

How we sell Moments to cafés, restaurants, places, hosts and members: what we sell, how we pitch it, what we can agree to, and what we never promise.

For
Founder, team members, organizers who bring partners

About the numbers in here. Every price, fee and rule in this playbook is the one set in the app and on the server today (defaults the owner can change in the Studio). There are no traction figures, no customer counts and no quotes in this document. Where you need a target, there is a blank for you to fill in.

01 · THE OFFER

What Moments sells, in one line each

Moments gets people off their phones and to a real table. Everything we sell either brings a guest to a place, or gives a member a better seat at the table.

LINE	WHO PAYS	CURRENT SETTING	STATUS
Moments+ membership	Members. 2 Weekly Drops a month, Language Circles, chat with Table Buddies, ✦ badge.	129 EGP / month 990 EGP / year	Payments by InstaPay, checked by the team
Moments Black membership	Members. Everything in Moments+, 4 Drops a month, unlimited Circles, more than one table booked.	299 EGP / month 1,300 EGP / year	Same
Verified guest fee	Cafés, restaurants, shops and activity places, per guest who checks in with the staff's 4-digit code (one a day per person per place).	20 EGP per verified guest	Not billed yet. The portal shows what the fee would come to.
Quiet-hours deal	The place gives a discount (5–50%) in its slow hours, at the table. Moments never touches the bill.	Same per-guest fee. No bigger cut.	Live
Venue booking fee	The venue, from the booking value, per confirmed booking.	15 EGP per booking	Live in bookings
Commission on offers	Trips, stays, experiences sold through Moments. The split is frozen on each booking.	Partner venue 10% Offer venues 15% (owner sets 0–50%)	Trips booked on WhatsApp for now
Order through Moments	The buyer, for things a partner lists (flowers first).	Partner's own price	Cash on delivery
Affiliate links	Outside programs (travel, experiences), per the program.	What each program pays	Clicks logged; tags pending

The order of focus. 1) Members for the Weekly Drops, because that's where the money comes in every month. 2) Cafés and restaurants that host the Drops, because without a table there is no product. 3) Everything else, once the first two run every week.

02 · WHO WE SELL TO

Nine kinds of business, one portal

Every partner picks what it is, and the portal gives it the tools that kind needs. Sell the tool, not "an app".

KIND	WHAT THEY GET	WHAT TO SELL THEM ON
Café · Restaurant	Host a Moments Table, quiet-hours deal, a group perk, staff check-in code, passport stamps	Full tables in slow hours; a count of guests they can trust
Shop	Same check-in and stamps, plus things people can order	Walk-ins from people already out
Hotel · Hostel · Home stay	Price a night, beds, what's included; stay requests they accept or decline	Group stays for Moments trips and visitors
Activity place	Check-ins, group requests (padel, climbing, studios…)	Groups that arrive together and come back
Organisation	Reaches people only through plans and live rooms, never ads in the feed	A real audience for real events
Host · Organizer	Verified through Hosts; the Organizer Hub with roster, check-in, wallet	Paid per person who really showed up

The ideal first partner (qualify before you pitch)

YES

- Has slow hours they want filled (weekday afternoons, early evenings)
- Has a corner or table for 6–10 people that can be held
- Quiet enough to talk; good light; a clear spot to meet
- The owner or manager answers WhatsApp themselves
- In or near a Moments neighbourhood (Zamalek, Maadi, Downtown, New Cairo…)

NOT NOW

- Wants guaranteed numbers before trying
- Shisha-first or very loud venues (people come to talk)
- Asks us to post fake reviews or inflate counts
- Wants exclusivity for a whole area on day one
- Anything sexual, dating-led or religious-led in the concept

03 · THE PITCH

Thirty seconds, then show the portal

"Moments brings small groups of people, who signed up to meet, to a real table every week. We'd like your place to be one of those tables. You choose the hours. Every guest checks in with a code your staff gives, so you see exactly how many people we brought. For now you don't pay anything; when billing starts, it's a fixed fee per guest who really came, and you'll have seen the numbers first."

Three things to say, in this order

1 · People who come to talk

Members book a seat, get a table chat two hours before, and arrive together. They stay, order, and come back.

2 · Numbers you can check

A visit counts only when your staff gives the 4-digit code. One a day per person. No one can inflate it, us included.

3 · Your slow hours, filled

Set a quiet-hours deal (5–50%) for the hours you choose. It shows as "on now" while it runs.

Show, don't describe

1. Open the business demo on your phone: therealmoments.com/?business=demo (no login). It's labelled as a demo, so say so.
2. Walk through: check-in code → guests Moments brought → quiet-hours deal → the bill line ("billing has not started").
3. Hand them the apply link: therealmoments.com/?partner=place (or =experience for trips, workshops, guides). Five fields, no account needed.
4. Tell them what happens next: the team reviews in the Studio, and they get their page once accepted.

Never say

- "We'll fill your place every night" (we don't promise numbers)
- "Thousands of users" or any count you didn't read from the Studio that day
- "Filling fast" / "only 2 spots left" unless the app shows it right now
- "It's free forever" (it's free now, billing comes later, and it's per verified guest)
- Anything about dating or "meet girls/guys". Moments is for friendship, languages and going out.

04 · THE PROCESS

From a name on a list to a weekly table

1. List. 20 places per neighbourhood. Note: slow hours, table size, noise, who decides, WhatsApp number. Source: walking past, Google Maps, members' favourites.
2. First touch. WhatsApp the opener (next page) or walk in between 3 and 6 pm. Ask for the owner or manager by name.
3. Visit & demo. 10 minutes, at their place. The 30-second pitch, then the demo portal. Ask: "Which hours are slow for you?"
4. Apply. They fill the partner page in front of you. Don't fill it for them; their phone, their details.
5. Accept in the Studio. The owner accepts the application, which gives them a venue page and the partner account. Check the commission and their country.
6. Set up. Photos and hours on the page (empty pages get flagged in Studio), the staff check-in code, an optional quiet-hours deal and group perk.
7. First Drop. Put them on a Weekly Drop. Be there, or have a certified host there. Check people in properly.
8. Day-30 review. Sit with them and read the portal together: guests brought, repeat guests, deal visits. Decide: keep weekly, change the hours, or pause.

Pipeline sheet: one row per place

PLACE	AREA	KIND	DECIDER	STAGE (1–8)	NEXT STEP + DATE	OWNER

Rule of thumb. Every place gets a next step with a date. A place with no reply after two follow-ups a week apart goes to "later", not to a third message.

05 · SCRIPTS

What to send and what to say, in Egyptian Arabic

Objections

THEY SAY	YOU SAY
"How many people will you bring?"	"I won't promise a number. Start with one table a week. You'll see every check-in in your portal, and we decide together at day 30."
"What does it cost?"	"Nothing now. When billing starts it's a fixed fee per guest who checked in with your code, never on people who didn't come."
"Do I have to give a discount?"	"No. A quiet-hours deal is optional, and you choose the hours and the percent."
"Will they just sit with one coffee?"	"It's a 1–2 hour table. Set a group perk with a minimum if you like. It's your call."
"We're too busy."	"Then pick the hours you're not busy. That's what it's for."
"Is this a dating app?"	"No. Moments is for friends, languages and going out. Tables are small and checked in, and anyone can be reported."

07 · MEMBERS & ORGANIZERS

Selling the membership, paying the hosts

Members: how they pay

1. Choose Moments+ or Black, monthly or yearly
2. Send the amount by InstaPay to the handle shown in the app
3. Upload the screenshot (and reference) in the app
4. The team checks it; the plan turns on

Card payment comes later. Don't promise a date.

Members: what actually sells

- A seat at a named table, on a named day: "Thursday, Zamalek"
- The Language Circles for people learning English
- Chatting with the people they met (free members can only reply)
- Black for people who go out every week

Invite reward (real, server-checked). Every 5 friends who join through a member's link give that member a free Moments Black week, up to 2 a month. Say it exactly like that.

Organizers & certified hosts

ITEM	THE RULE
Pay	15 EGP per person who really checked in (QR or by hand). The owner can change it in the Studio.
When it unlocks	After at least 3 people rated the event and the average is 4.2 or more
Payout	The owner pays from the Studio; every payout is written down
Certified host	5+ passport stamps, a partner venue, or verified by the owner. Their plans become Official Moments Tables with QR and card deck
Their tools	Organizer Hub: who's coming and paid, check-in by hand, "I'm here", pings, SOS to the team, ratings, wallet

Recruit hosts from the tables. The best organizer is a member with five stamps who already brings friends. Ask them after a good table, not by broadcast.

08 · NUMBERS & RULES

What we track, and the lines we don't cross

Read these from the Studio every Monday

NUMBER	WHERE	THIS MONTH'S TARGET
MRR / ARR (paid memberships only, gifts and founding seats apart)	Studio · Traction	_____
Paid conversion	Studio · Traction	_____
30-day retention (cohorts)	Studio · Traction	_____
QR check-ins this month	Studio · Traction	_____
Active hosts · active cities	Studio · Traction	_____
Partners live (accepted, with photos and hours)	Studio · Partners	_____
Partners that need a look	Studio · Partners that need a look	0

"Partners that need a look" flags a place when check-ins jump to 5× the usual (and 10+), when 3+ people check in 4+ days in a week, when group requests sit unanswered over a day, or when the page has no photos or hours. Call them; don't accuse them.

Non-negotiables

- Nothing fake. No made-up counts, reviews, "spots left" or testimonials. Sample data is labelled sample.
- Faces need consent. No guest's photo in marketing without their yes.
- Prices come from the Studio, never from memory.

- No passwords or keys in chats, sheets or emails. Ever.
- Not a dating app, not a religious app. Partners and copy follow that.
- Moments never touches a place's bill. Discounts are given at the table.

One sentence to remember.
We sell real people at a real table, and the numbers anyone can check. If a deal needs us to stretch that, it's not a deal.
